PRESS RELEASE

The recent Government announcement of its Six-year Development Plan which places emphasis on Agriculture and Technical education has been very warmly received all over the country. Individuals, communities and organisations are already demonstrating their willingness to co-operate and support the Plan.

There are, on the other hand, some unscrupulous individuals and groups of persons who have begun to exploit for their selfish end this emphasis on technical education. These people are now starting illegally so-called "technical" and "agricultural" schools which they neither have the educational background to run nor the funds to provide the expensive equipment and staff necessary for their maintenance. What is more, they have had the courage to advertise the opening of such schools and have in most cases collected large sums of money from parents and guardians of students whom they persuade into believing that they are entering into genuine technical or agricultural schools.

The public is hereby reminded that it is an offence to establish or open any new school or institution without the approval of the Minister in writing. Any parent or guardian who patronises a new school, without ascertaining whether its establishment was authorised by the Minister, is not only running the risk of a financial loss, but may be also aiding and abetting a criminal offence.

It is also an offence either to publish an advertisement in connection with such a school or institution, or to be its manager, principal, headmaster, instructor or teacher. The penalty is imprisonment for one year or a fine of one hundred pounds.

(Authorised and approved by the Honourable Minister of Education).

Further incremental credits might be granted to a candidate with more than two years' post-call experience. For candidates with less than two years' post-call experience the appointment will be initially for the post of Pupil Legal Adviser and the salary will commence at £762, rising to £1,020 on his attaining two years' post-call experience.

At a suitable point in his career, the successful candidate may probably proceed to the U.K. for a period of attachment to the Solicitor's Office of the (British) Board of Inland Revenue if suitable arrangements can be made.

Notice is hereby given that, as from 1st December, 1962, the Yankari Game Reserve, Bauchi Province, will be opened to the general public for visits. The Game Reserve will be closed to visitors on the 31st day of May, 1963.

2. Visitors wishing to visit the Yankari Game Reserve must apply for permission to enter the Game Reserve, at least one month in advance of the date of their intended visit. Application should be made to the Regional Game Warden, Ministry of Animal and Forest Resources, Bauchi (Telegraphic address—Game Bauchi) and should state whether the visitor will require the use of a Game Unit Land-Rover within the Reserve.

3. Visitors to the Game Reserve are required to comply with any rules and Instructions for visitors issued by the Regional Game Warden.

4. The Yankari Game Reserve is an area of approximately 720 square miles in extent situated in the Bauchi Province and to the south-east of Bauchi. Access to the Game Reserve from Bauchi is by means of the Bauchi-Gombe all season (laterite motor road from Dindima on the Bauchi-Gombe motor road. Dindima is approximately twenty-four miles from Bauchi on this road. From Dindima the road is a dry season laterite road to Maina Maji Base Camp (eighteen miles) on the north-western corner of the Game Reserve.

5. Visitors are expected to use their own transport as far as the Maina Maji Base Camp, but, within the Game Reserve the jeep tracks made to enable visitors to move round wit in the Game Reserve for the purpose of seeing the animals are not yet suitable for normal vehicles and a land rover is required.

6. Visitors arriving at the Maina Maji Base Camp in vehicles other than Land-Rovers will be required to leave their vehicles at the Base Camp and will then be taken into the Reserve by Game Unit Land-Rover.

7. Accommodation within the Game Reserve.—Visitors are warned that there is no catering rest house accommodation in the Game Reserve. Tents are provided, ready erected, at the Wikki Warm Springs camp within the Game Reserve. Visitors must therefore bring with them full camping loads and must provide their own beds, bedding, food, drink, cooking and lighting facilities. Wood and water is provided but no servants are provided.

8. It is hoped, when funds become available, to improve the facilities but, for the present, visitors must be prepared to travel self-contained and camp self-contained under canvas in the Wikki Warm Springs Camp.

9. To have a reasonable certainty of seeing a representative selection of the wild animals found within the Game Reserve it is essential that at least one night be spent in the Reserve.

10. The normal procedure for visits is for the visitor to leave Bauchi (where there is a catering rest house) in the morning in order to arrive at the Base Camp before mid-day. At the Base Camp the visitor will be met by a member of the Game Protection Staff and conducted to the Wikki Warm Springs Camp. A visitor arriving in his own Land-Rover can use that vehicle within the Reserve but must always be accompanied by a member of the Game

Protection Staff. A visitor arriving in a vehicle other than a Land-Rover will be transported, with loads, to the Wikki Warm Springs Camp in a Game Unit Land-Rover.

11. It is recommended that visitors bring a picnic lunch with them from Bauchi to be eaten en route to the Wikki Warm Springs Camp.

12. On arrival at the Wikki Warm Springs Camp the visitor will find tents ready erected and rough camp cooking facilities in the form of a rumfa and fireplace. No cooking utensils are provided.

13. In the evening of arrival the visitor is taken on a tour in the Game Unit Land-Rover (or his own Land-Rover) by a member of the Game Protection Staff and shown the areas where game congregate.

14. A similar tour is arranged before breakfast on the next day to a different part of the Game Reserve. Mornings and evenings are the best times for seeing the wild animals in the Reserve.

15. Charges.—The following charges are payable by visitors to the Game Reserve:—

(1) Transport Charges—

(a) A charge of ten shillings per person is payable in respect of the transport from the Base Camp to the Wikki Warm Springs when a Game Unit Land-Rover is used.
